PLAINTIFF'S COMPLAINT

AND NOW, comes the plaintiff, Brian Norris, Sr., by and through his attorney, Thomas F. Sacchetta, Esquire, and avers as follows:

1. Plaintiff, Brian Norris, is an adult individual residing at 2012 Weisstown Road, Bechtelsville, Pennsylvania 19505.

2. Defendant, Top Lock Corp., is, upon information and belief, a corporation, partnership, sole proprietorship, unincorporated association or other legal entity existing under the laws of the State of Indiana with an address of 319 Harlan Drive, Mooresville, Indiana 46158. Defendant, Top Lock Corp., regularly conducts business in Philadelphia County.

3. Defendant, Sonny Scaffolding, is, upon information and belief, a corporation, partnership, sole proprietorship, unincorporated association or other legal entity existing under the laws of the State of Indiana with an address c/o Sonny Perry, 319 Harlan Drive, Mooresville, Indiana 46158. Defendant, Sonny Scaffolding, regularly conducts business in Philadelphia County.

4. Defendant, Sonny Perry, is an adult individual who maintained a business address of 319 Harlan Drive, Mooresville, Indiana 46158. Defendant, Sonny Perry, regularly conducts business in Philadelphia County.

5. Defendant, Myers Spring Company, Inc., is, upon information and belief, a corporation, partnership, sole proprietorship, unincorporated association or other legal entity existing under the laws of the State of Indiana with an address of 720 Water Street, Logansport, Indiana 46947. Defendant, Myers Spring Company, Inc., regularly conducts business in Philadelphia County.

6. On March 15, 2013, plaintiff, Brian Norris, Sr., while in the course and scope of his employment as a carpenter, was injured when the scaffolding he was on collapsed causing him to fall.

7. At all relevant material hereto, defendants, Top Lock Corp., Sonny Scaffolding, Sonny Perry and Myers Spring Company, Inc., were engaged in the selling, leasing, marketing, manufacturing, distributing and design of the scaffolding and its component parts including springs.

8. The accident was caused by the negligence of defendants and each of them, and plaintiff brings this action to recover against them jointly and severally.

COUNT I - NEGLIGENCE

Plaintiff, Brian Norris, Sr. v. Defendant, Top Lock Corp.

9. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth at length.

10. The incident and resulting injuries to plaintiff were caused by the negligence of defendant, Top Lock Corp., acting by and through its agents servants, workmen and employees.

11. Such negligence and carelessness consisted of the following:

(a) failing to properly equip the scaffolding and its component parts including springs with appropriate safety devices;

(b) failing to offer devices or products so as to make the defective scaffolding and its component parts including springs safe;

(c) allowing its defective scaffolding and its component parts including springs to be sold in a defective condition;

(d) failing to warn users or others subject to injury resulting from the dangerous product, of the dangers associated with the defective scaffolding and its component parts including springs;

(e) failing to investigate the dangers associated with its defective scaffolding and its component parts including springs and its use;

(f) placing its product in the stream of commerce when it knew it was not properly equipped with all features to make the defective scaffolding and its component parts including springs for its intended use;

(g) failing to properly design the defective scaffolding and its component parts including springs so that it would not cause harm or increase harm to others;

(h) designing, manufacturing, assembling, selling and/or leasing a defective scaffolding and its component parts including springs which it knew or should have known, was in a defective condition;

(i) failing to perform tests or studies about the operation of the defective scaffolding and its components parts including springs; and

(k) ignoring evidence and facts about the dangers of the defective scaffolding and its component parts including springs when used in a reasonably foreseeable manner.

12. The accident was caused by the negligence and recklessness of defendant, Top Lock Corp., and was in no way caused by the plaintiff.

13. As a result of the accident, plaintiff, Brian Norris, Sr., suffered severe injuries which included, but were not limited to, complex fracture of the left lower extremity requiring numerous surgeries and eventual loss of limb.

14. As a result of plaintiff's injuries, he has endured and will continue to endure great pain, suffering, inconvenience, embarrassment, mental anguish, and emotional and psychological trauma.

15. As a result of plaintiff's injuries, he has expended and will be required to expend large sums of money for medical treatment rehabilitation and therapeutic treatment, and other attendant services.

16. As a result of plaintiff's injuries, he has sustained and will continue to sustain lost earnings, and his earning capacity has been reduced and may be permanently impaired.

17. As a result of plaintiff's injuries, he has been and will in the future be unable to enjoy various pleasures of life that he previously enjoyed.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff, Brian Norris, Sr., demands judgment in his favor and against defendants, jointly and severally, in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limit for arbitration, together with interest and costs.

COUNT II - NEGLIGENCE

Plaintiff, Brian Norris, Sr. v. Defendant, Sonny Scaffolding

18. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth at length.

19. The incident and resulting injuries to plaintiff were caused by the negligence of defendant, Sonny Scaffolding, acting by and through its agents servants, workmen and employees.

20. Such negligence and carelessness consisted of the following:

(a) failing to properly equip the scaffolding and its component parts including springs with appropriate safety devices;

(b) failing to offer devices or products so as to make the defective scaffolding and its component parts including springs safe;

(c) allowing its defective scaffolding and its component parts including springs to be sold in a defective condition;

(d) failing to warn users or others subject to injury resulting from the dangerous product, of the dangers associated with the defective scaffolding and its component parts including springs;

(e) failing to investigate the dangers associated with its defective scaffolding and its component parts including springs and its use;

(f) placing its product in the stream of commerce when it knew it was not properly equipped with all features to make the defective scaffolding and its component parts including springs for its intended use;

(g) failing to properly design the defective scaffolding and its component parts including springs so that it would not cause harm or increase harm to others;

(h) designing, manufacturing, assembling, selling and/or leasing a defective scaffolding and its component parts including springs which it knew or should have known, was in a defective condition;

(i) failing to perform tests or studies about the operation of the defective scaffolding and its component parts including springs; and

(k) ignoring evidence and facts about the dangers of the defective scaffolding and its component parts including springs when used in a reasonably foreseeable manner.

21. The accident was caused by the negligence and recklessness of defendant, Sonny Scaffolding, and was in no way caused by the plaintiff.

22. As a result of the accident, plaintiff, Brian Norris, Sr., suffered severe injuries which included, but were not limited to, complex fracture of the left lower extremity requiring numerous surgeries and eventual loss of limb.

23. As a result of plaintiff's injuries, he has endured and will continue to endure great pain, suffering, inconvenience, embarrassment, mental anguish, and emotional and psychological trauma.

24. As a result of plaintiff's injuries, he has expended and will be required to expend large sums of money for medical treatment rehabilitation and therapeutic treatment, and other attendant services.

25. As a result of plaintiff's injuries, he has sustained and will continue to sustain lost earnings, and his earning capacity has been reduced and may be permanently impaired.

26. As a result of plaintiff's injuries, he has been and will in the future be unable to enjoy various pleasures of life that he previously enjoyed.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff, Brian Norris, Sr., demands judgment in his favor and against defendants, jointly and severally, in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limit for arbitration, together with interest and costs.

Dear Corporate Officer:

During my term as Indiana Secretary of State, I am committed to improving service to customers by reducing the burden of unnecessary filings and fees. As a result of my legislative package, corporate report filings have been cut in half. Corporations file a report with our office every second year following the year of incorporation. Those corporations incorporated in an EVEN year, must file in 1996 and every even year thereafter. Those incorporated in an ODD year will not file until 1997 and then every odd year thereafter. The biennial report is due in the month of original incorporation. Please note your date of incorporation on the front of this form, or call our information line at (317) 232-6576 to find out the date.

The fee is now $30.00 for a 2-year registration instead of $15.00 for a 1-year registration.

Please read carefully the following instructions to help you complete successfully the filing requirements of this Biennial Report.

If you have any questions, ideas or suggestions, please contact me at 201 Statehouse, Indianapolis, Indiana 46204. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Sue Anne Gilroy
